February 16th 2010: Special Encore Presentation: "A Multi-Cultured Perspective of our World from Eastern Iraq to Western Society."

James Younan's long road to freedom is charted from his birth in Baghdad to the present day as an American citizen. The story of this Aramaic speaking individual inspires those to understand the pain and agony experienced in fleeing from persecution and tyranny. The outcome enlightens those more fortunate to understand better the determination in fighting for family and peace.
