February 17th 2010: Special Encore

Presentation: "The Entertainment Revolution –
"Fusion" Technology and 3D Entertainment"

The FUSION 3D experience has been referred to as "being there." It's sitting in the front row of a U2 concert as Bono almost touches you, hip hopping with Missy Elliott to Ching-A-Ling and feeling like a VIP court side at the NBA Finals Game Two. The program talks to Vince Pace, an individuals behind this and other effects during the great movies of Titanic and Abyss among many other credits.

Vince Pace

Vince Pace has been fundamentally involved with 3D technology since the beginning of the resurgence of the art form. His credits include most of the major projects which have unfolded so far, including the blockbuster 3D movie "Hannah Montana/Miley Cyrus," "Journey to the Center of the Earth," and the highly anticipated "Avatar" 2009, with more to come.
