March 11th 2010: Special Encore Presentation: "The Art of Cinematography"

Director of Photography George Mooradian is a four time Emmy Award nominee for the hit series According to Jim. Before moving into the multi-camera world, he was cinematographer on over a dozen television movies. His credits operating for high-profile cinematographers such as Vittorio Storaro, ASC (Dick Tracy) served as the foundation for the feature look he brings to sit-com projects. His path and continued career takes a step by step progression in this program that illustrates the amazing journey from early films Escape from New York to the television stage.
