March 11th 2010:Prevailing Against All Odds

Webster's dictionary defines a hero as a man or woman of distinguished courage or ability, admired for his brave deeds and noble qualities. Our mental picture of a hero has significantly changed in the past 50 years. While Civil Rights Leaders and professionals used to be the eye candy of every youth, it has now been replaced by athletes and entertainers. Today's youth have determined that the glitz and glam is more important than having a lasting education, skill, and community presence. There are those in the community who have made it their life mission to help remold and uplift the minds o

Tyrone Keys

Tyrone Keys is from Jackson, Mississippi where he was named High School All-American and voted defensive MVP of the year in the state of Mississippi in 1977. His high school team also won the state championship in 1976. Keys chose to attend Mississippi State University where his determination to make a significant impact for this university catapulted him into making 26 career sacks (second highest in the school's history) and being selected All-Southeastern Conference (All SEC) three consecutive seasons, 1977-1980. After graduating from Mississippi State in 1981 with a Bachelor of Science degree in Physical Education, Tyrone began his 9-year professional football career. Tyrone was the 5t
