March 16th 2010: TSA Federal Air Marshal Service
"Whistleblower Case - The demand for re-instatement."

Robert MacLean shares his difficult road to recovery following the termination in 2006 of his position as an air marshal in the TSA government security service. The program charts his life-long dedication to government and country prior to being cited in the high profile whistleblower case. Examination of the events surrounding the case has led to public outcry demanding a government decision to restore MacLean to active duty in the job he seeks to return to, after many years of desperation.
