March 17th 2010: Live From Maui

Live.United is a slogan the NFL Player's Union has aligned itself with recently, and they really seem to be living up to it. This week retired and active players alike have converged upon the beautiful island of Maui to discuss how they can forge a united front, that will encompass all they believe The Game to be. Whether its in relation to player safety, benefits, or compensation, at some point and time an active player will become a retired player, and having the same agenda is essential to their livelihood. Your very own Dave Duerson will be broadcasting live from this historic event to exp
