March 31st 2010: Launch Program "The New eLetter's from America"

The New eLetter's from America follows in the footsteps of Alistair Cooke's journey across the United States, between the post-war years to his passing in 2004. The established and polished style of Cooke's delivery taken on under different guise by Gibbons, illuminates the extraordinary changes in American society. The reporting from studio and across America's heart land is a program capturing the fundamental mindset and emotive state of people across the country through carefully planned recordings and film. New eLetter's from America will cover the sublime and trauma of a country coming to
