

Family Caregivers Unite!
Archives Available
April 27th 2010: Kate's Voice: Children with Special Needs and Music Therapy

Laura Rutherford and Meredith Pizzi are linked by music therapy. Laura is the mother of Kate, who has multiple developmental and physical disabilities and who inspired Kate's Voice, a non-profit group that grants music therapy programs to special-needs classrooms. Meredith, a professional music therapist, is the Founder and Director of Roman Music Therapy Services, a music therapy agency which serves children and adults with social, emotional, cognitive, behavioral, physical, and educational needs. They talk about their work in and for music therapy and how they came to be involved. They ex

Tune in

Archives Available on
VoiceAmerica Variety Channel

EPISODE ON DEMAND

VIEW HOST PAGE

Read more

Featured Guests

Laura Rutherford

Laura Rutherford and her husband, Mark, are the founders of Kate's Voice -- a non-profit that grants music therapy programs to special needs classrooms. She is the mother of three children. Her oldest child, Kate, has multiple developmental and physical disabilities and inspired Kate's Voice.

Read more

Meredith Roman Pizzi

Meredith Roman Pizzi is the Founder and Director of Roman Music Therapy Services, a music therapy agency which serves children and adults with social, emotional, cognitive, behavioral, physical, and educational needs.

Read more

Share This Episode

Connect with VoiceAmerica

Read what our hosts are writing about.

