April 22nd 2010: The Commercial World - "The Age Defiers - Procter and Gamble"

George Mooradian and Tomas Tucker both established Director's of Photography joins David Gibbons to discuss shooting and directing of commercials. In this program they talk to the work that they have been involved in over many years and compare notes with humor, interest and comment. There latest work together for Procter & Gamble examines the business of advertising and main stream commercials for television. It also talks to the aspects of working in the beauty arena with delicate cinematography and mixed use of digital and film celluloid materials.
