Turning Hard Times into Good Times
Tuesday at 12 Noon Pacific
May 25th 2010: The Fed and Congress Form an Unholy Alliance

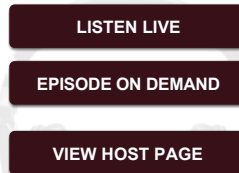

Jeff Deist, Congressman Ron Paul's Chief of Staff will explain how Congress deceives the American people into thinking it is controlling the Fed. But in fact, Jeff will point out investigations by Congress are a smokescreen to convince the public that their elected officials are looking out for them. That's on the surface. The reason Congress did not pass an "Audit the Fed" bill with teeth is because it does not want the Fed to disappear. Were that to happen, Congressmen could no longer spend more money than they are able to tax. Representatives know that if they had to raise taxes for a
