May 27th 2010: "The Western – "Drawing a Line in the Sand." First in a New Series

David Gibbons is joined by Film Actor Todd Allen to introduce this new season of programs on the traditional Western genre. From the early movies through to recent films including Unforgiven and Wyatt Earp, each program celebrates the historical timelines and characters with guests from all areas of film and television. The story unfolds providing a unique perspective from historical sources to those in front of and behind the camera. A magnificent picture of American history is portrayed in this analysis of those that portrayed the characters and chronological benchmarks, defining one of the
