June 7th 2010: "The Life and Career of Captain Dan Hanley"

Dan Hanley joins "In Discussion" to outline the urgent reform required for an industry and country marred by the whistle blower dilemma. He has been attributed to and known for dedication to alerting the public of negatively impacting affects upon the safety of air travel. Dan Hanley as a seasoned airline captain with 35 years of service was discharged from a long and successful career, after raising valid concerns over federal aviation violations. He was subsequently discharged and isolated from an industry and career that had been well-earned and handled with professionalism and care.
