July 01st 2010:What In The Football? IV: A Sense of Entitlement

When most fans are asked what they don't like about their favorite athlete, most will say that "Athletes have an uncanny sense of entitlement. That athletes seem to think that they are entitled to the lawless and enterprising side of The Law. That when they break The Law, that they are allowed to get away with it because they're an athlete." This week the Rookie Symposium is taking place in Carlsbad, CA. Each year The NFL holds a symposium to introduce Life Skills, and to deter The Rookies from making poor choices. The desire is that they not turn into Ben Roethlisberger, Vince Young, or Mic
