July 19th 2010: PIG BUSINESS" - The Life of Lady Tracy Worcester - Filmmaker and Champion of Animal Rights.

Lady Tracy Worcester joins David Gibbons to discuss the widespread concerns over animal abuse, pollution of the environment, destruction of small farmers and jeopardizing of lives in this profound program. Pig business is big business, and vast factory operations across Europe not only have a poor record on animal welfare, they also stand accused of endangering the health of communities near pig factories, polluting the environment and putting traditional independent farmers out of business. Lax labeling requirements in the UK mean British consumers are not able to determine the country of ori
