July 26th 2010: The Life and Career of Michael W. Lynch - "Visions of a Changing World and The Profound Opportunities it holds"

Michael Lynch joins David Gibbons in this first program talking to a changing business world, defining the reshaping of a nation and world. Areas in corporate social responsibility and social values rank among many key issues illustrating the man behind a wealth of visionary and unrelenting viewpoints. Love of family and friends and an over-whelming level of optimism for the re-establishment of a country's rebirth, build throughout an increasingly and important sense of motivational statements. In a two part series the programs provide listeners with a life dedicated to change and strength for
