August 20th 2010: "Is Clean Drinking Water a Right or a Privilege"

Though tap water in the United States is much cleaner than in many other countries, it is not perfectly healthy. Recent studies have shown that rivers throughout the U.S. are contaminated with pharmaceuticals, and it doesn't take a rocket scientist to know that our children shouldn't be drinking water with medicine in it. Many families have turned to bottled water, assuming it is safe, but in fact only one person at the U.S. Food and Drug Administration has the responsibility to oversee the safety of our entire nation's bottled water supply. On today's episode of Go Green Radio, we'll talk wit

Faber Dewar

Scottish born and English raised I was from the very beginnings a woodworker. Ask any family member where I was as a child and they would answer, "in the garage with a hammer, some wood and nails". When we were in Scotland doing a special "trading Castles" , a castle owner told me that my name" Faber", translated from Latin, meant "Someone who made things with thier hands". I lived for 40 years before finding that out.! I moved to Hawaii to go to college as I became very determined to become a marine biologist. My goals being, to develop open ocean fish farming techniques to help feed 3rd world nations. My time in Hawaii was magical and I was influenced profoundly by the people and
