September 02nd 2010: Financial Fraud: The Elder Trap!

Who are those most likely to exploit the financial resources of the elderly, those who are the most vulnerable? And who will be exploited? Is it your mother, father, your sibling or your friend or neighbor? What can you do about it? What are some red flags that family members and others can heed when fraud is suspected? With baby boomers aging, the U.S., elders are quickly becoming a significant portion of the population. Even the 2000 census determined that 12.4 % of the U.S. population, almost 35 million people, were over the age of 65. Expert witness and Forensic Questioned Document
