September 16th 2010: Special Encore Presentation: "Health Care—Public Policy—Law Blogging"

Join us this week on the Capital Thinking Radio Show as host Kevin O'Neill speaks to health care policy bloggers Julie Black and Kendall Hussey regarding updates and new developments on the healthcare reform law, as well as post-passage reactions from Congress and the reform's affect on the current election. Next, what does the coming election mean for public policy in Washington in 2010 and beyond? Nick Allard joins us and analyzes the current political landscape and his predictions for this year's races. Finally, Bill McGinley, leader of the popular election law blog Express Advocac
