December 1st 2010: Your Body, Your Responsibility

The human body remains the most incredible, yet still the most misunderstood creation known to man. We can explore the universe and send space vehicles to distant planets but we have yet to unravel the complexity of the human body and all its thousands of functions. Medicine continues to make inroads on the inner workings of the body such as the discovery of the human genome but still fails to understand such things as why 80% of the human population ends up with chronic back pain or why knee and hip joints wear out in people in their 40's and 50's. After a combined total of over 75 years
