December 02nd 2010: Executed by the State!

What is your opinion of the death penalty? Do you agree with state ordered executions? Are there viable alternatives? What or who determines the circumstances for those who get charged with special circumstances resulting in a potential death verdict? What about the factor of possible innocence? How many have faced a death sentence before they were exonerated? How many were executed first? Mike Farrell, president of Death Penalty Focus, one of the nation's largest, most innovative and highly respected advocacy organizations dedicated to the abolition of capital punishment, will be providing
