

Go Green Radio

Friday at 9 AM Pacific

December 10th 2010: "Can a kid from Atlanta "Green" the World?"

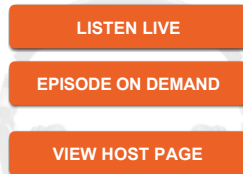

Charles Orgbon is one of those kids who makes you think, "I should probably get his autograph now. He's going to be famous someday." At 15 years old, Charles is the President and CEO of Greening Forward (www.greeningforward.org), and not only is his organization growing their membership, they are hiring! Greening Forward has entered the Pepsi Refresh Project contest to win $50,000 so they can host environmental leadership conferences in multiple cities across the U.S., with the goal of training youth to be environmental leaders. [You can vote for the project by visiting www.refresheverything.c

Read more

Tune in

Friday at 9 AM Pacific Time on VoiceAmerica Variety Channel

Questions? Comments?
Call In Live!

Toll Free: 1-866-472-5788
Intl: 001-480-398-1394

Featured Guest

Charles Orgbon

Charles is a freshman in High School at Mill Creek High School in Hoschton, GA. He serves as the Freshman Class President in Student Government, and is a leader in Young Democrats of America and Key Club. Concurrently, he serves as President/CEO of Greening Forward, an organization whose mission is to raise awareness for environmental causes by supporting a network of youth-led environmental school clubs, helping small businesses and non-profits create a more sustainable workplace, and educating low-income communities about ways to conserve water and energy resources. Charles is a board member for Earth Force, youth advisory board member for Ways to Help, and national youth councilman for Y

Read more

Share This Episode

Connect with VoiceAmerica

Download our mobile apps

