December 29th 2010: Special Encore Presentation: Crime Victims Who've Survived and Triumphed - Part 2

Ring in 2010 with Crime Prevention Specialist Susan Bartelstone as she introduces you to three crime survivors who went on to thrive and are helping others do the same. First up is Ellen Snortland, author of Beauty Bites Beast, who, after coming face to face with an assailant about to plunge a knife into her, became an international advocate for women's self defense. Next is Kim Estes, who founded Peace of Mind to provide child safety education and workshops to parents and teachers after photos of her best friend's children were secretly posted on an infamous pedophile website. And, last, m
