Margery Krevsky

Margery Krevsky co-founded Productions Plus, and the agency rapidly became one of the major players in selecting, outfitting and training talent for auto shows across America. In November 2009 the company acquired another firm making Productions Plus – The Talent Shop, with current revenues of $20 million, the largest premier full-service talent management agency in Michigan and one of the biggest in the nation. The expanded company anticipates a 30 percent growth with the addition of the other entity's holdings and seasoned performers. Its database identifies highly trained actors, product specialists, narrators, models, costume characters, hostesses, crowd gatherers, greeters, celebrity im
