January 4th 2011: Decrees

“The call compels the answer.” With these words, the Bible tells us that we have the power and the freedom to literally command God. And what is the most effective means of “compelling the answer”? It is the dynamic decree. Based on the creative power of sound, dynamic decrees are the means to formulate and deliver powerful prayers...for any good reason or circumstance. The power of sound has the power to create, and we use decrees to create the conditions we most desire in our world. Learn what a decree is, how it is formed...and how it works. For creating and sustaining spiritual harmony
