January 06th 2011: Women Investigators Changing the Face of Asia

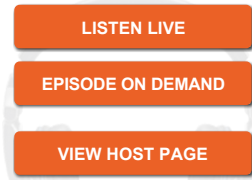

Are you interested in meeting a woman who is an accomplished private investigator in the Asian Theatre? Can you imagine what kinds of obstacles she must encounter? Envision the difficulties she must have where an American or European woman wouldn't even think twice. A woman serving in a leadership position or serving in work traditionally performed by men is unique in most countries. And yet, following in her father's footsteps, Sheila Ponnosamy has been conducting investigations through all of Asia and other parts of the globe for over fifteen years successfully. Tune in to listen to the trav
