Bev Mahone and Pat Montgomery, experienced broadcasters, writers and journalists, are also grandparent family caregivers. They explain how grandparent caregiving has affected their lives and ways of thinking about caregiving. They talk about the grandparent family caregivers they hear from and the challenges these grandparents face including law, rights and red tape, and financial and health challenges. They discuss the questions they are asked and the advice they offer. They describe the blockages that prevent grandparent family caregivers from moving forward. They say what makes the sun shi
