Jim Richman

Jim Richman has been in the mortgage modification business for 11 years, after retiring from a commercial loan department for Coast Savings and Loan. In the commercial loan business, loan modifications were the norm, but in the residential loan world they were for the mostly unknown. Jim convinced a friends' lender that that they could and should modify the terms of his loan. He explained this to some of his brokers and attorney friends and a business was born. His firm now acts as a free mortgage consultant service to homeowners and if it is in the homeowner's best interest they will refer them to a qualified attorney in their state and recommend the attorney accept the case. They are a fre
