

TROUBLE VIEWING? Click Here to view the Promo card on the web

SIGN-UP NOW! SIGN-UP NOW! Click to become a Member for Free!

Family Caregivers Unite!

Archives Available

February 22nd 2011: Airborne Films: Airborne Hopes for Young Adults with Mental Health Conditions

Deanna Finch-Smith is Executive Director of the Salvation Army Lawson Ministries, which supports adults with developmental disabilities in residential, day, and employment opportunities. Bruce Ritchie is Moderator & CEO of the Fetal Alcohol Disorders Society, and a single father of a son who was diagnosed with FAS as an infant. They describe the work of their organizations. They explore the challenges that mental health conditions create for young adults. They discuss innovative social approaches to the care of young adults with mental health conditions, such as the for-profit business created

Read more

Tune in

Archives Available on VoiceAmerica Variety Channel

EPISODE ON DEMAND

VIEW HOST PAGE

Featured Guest

Deanna Finch-Smith

Deanna Finch-Smith is Executive Director of the Salvation Army Lawson Ministries in Hamilton, Ontario, Canada. The Lawson Ministries, which she's been with for 16 years, supports adults with developmental disabilities in residential, day, and employment opportunities. Her 25 years of work in the social-service sector has given her a wide base of knowledge and experiences which she draws on to support individuals with developmental disabilities of many types. She and her husband Steve and their 2 boys live in Brantford, Ontario, where they are active in the sports world. The Lawson Ministries web site is www.lawsonministries.org

Read more

Share This Episode

Connect with VoiceAmerica

Download our mobile apps

Come see what VoiceAmerica's hosts are writing, on PressBlog!

