March 31st 2011: Eric Maisel: Overcoming Creative Anxiety

Are you creating less often than you would like? Are you avoiding your creative work altogether? Anxiety may be the culprit! Anxiety regularly stops creative people in their tracks and makes their experience of creating more painful than pleasurable. It stops would-be creative people entirely, preventing them from realizing their dreams. Anxiety is the number one problem that creative people face--and yet few know about it.
