April 16th 2011: Teenage Plastic Surgery

When you mention plastic surgery thoughts of facelifts and breast implants come to mind. But did you know that thousands of teenagers have procedures every year? In most cases those procedures are reconstructive, but many are for aesthetic purposes. This week we will explore the world of plastic surgery for teens. Joining us will be board certified plastic surgeon and author, Dr. Frederick Lukash. Dr. Lukash recently published a book about Teenage Plastic Surgery. Also joining us will be Dr. Drew Schnitt, specialist in plastic surgery for children. We might even have some patients call in to t
