April 26th 2011: God Government

What do the ascended masters have to say about God Government, education and the Ideal Society? Government and education in the ideal society are instruments for the development of the individual potential of man in harmony with all members of the community. When society is God-governed, all institutions, public and private, will stress the unity and sanctity of life through the trinity of faith, hope and charity. These essential qualities can also be expressed as the power, wisdom and love of God. Government and its correct functioning is the direct manifestation of the peoples' dedicatio
