Family Caregivers Unite! Archives Available

April 26th 2011: Passionate Amateurs as Inspired Innovators in Family Caregiving

Al Etmanski is co-founder and President of Planned Lifetime Advocacy Network, (www.plan.ca), which assists families in Canada and globally in addressing the financial and social well-being of relatives with a disability, particularly after their parents die. He talks about his career and his own family's experience with family caregiving. He discusses the especially challenging challenges faced by family caregivers and the way passionate amateurs with innovative instincts help family caregivers and their family members face these challenges. He gives some real-life examples. He compares passio
