May 17th 2011: Finding My Voice--Stories from Life with Cerebral Palsy

Don Smith and Jane Field have worked together to record Don's life story since meeting in a community literacy program 22 years ago. At the end of 2010 they published 'Finding My Voice: Stories From My Life'. They tell us how they came to know each other and to work together on the book. They talk about Don's life with cerebral palsy, about the people who were his family caregivers and about the challenges his family encountered making ends meet. Don talks about his first wheel chair and the way it affected his life. They both discuss Don's communications challenges. Jane highlights his commun
