May 18th 2011: The truth about Vaccines!

There have been many heated debates on the issue of vaccinations in the past few years. The majority of people feel very strongly for or against vaccines. This week, I will be discussing this issue with J.D. Masterson and she will be divulging some pretty incredible information on this topic and so much more.

J.D. Masterson, Ph.D.

J.D. Masterson, Ph.D. is a Hematology/Oncology Psychologist who worked with terminally ill children and families affected by cancer and blood related disorders for 15 years. She left the hospital to open private practice that ran exceedingly well until Managed Care came in and told her she could only see dying patients once a week. She closed her practice and went into entry level position at Pharmaceutical Company so that she would gain inside information on drugs/patents/scams/scientific studies. Eventually, with all her experience on large conglomerate falsities, she made it her mission to start exposing all of this to the public and thought what better way than in a suspense series writt
