May 18th 2011: Commemorating Missing Childrens' Day - The Jennifer Kesse Story

Jennifer Kesse was a beautiful, vibrant, 24-year-old woman when she vanished from her Orlando home on January 24, 2006. Despite numerous searches and years of police work, no arrests have been made and Jennifer has never been found. Since May 25th is National Missing Childrens' Day, Crime Prevention Specialist Susan Bartelstone takes a look at this topic, speaking with Drew Kesse, father of Jennifer, who's never stopped searching. She'll also be talking about a controversial proposal by a group that claims you can infallibly locate missing people using satellite technology that would watch
