May 30th 2011: Special Encore Presentation: Marketocracy
– Investors that are Accountable for Results

Our guest today, Ken Kam, founded Marketocracy Inc. in 2000 to find the best investors in the world and hold them accountable for results. Ken's firm offers a different way to invest. At Marketocracy, investing skills are proved by meritocracy: resumes and pedigrees pale in comparison to solid track records. Ken's investment professionals ascend by achieving investment success and proving their insight, commitment and skill. For Marketocracy members, investing is a passion – but one proven by returns. They make the investment process transparent and easy to understand, and they've selected the

Ken Kam

In 2000, Ken Kam walked out of Firsthand Funds, a successful company he co-founded, and walked into an amazing future as founder and CEO of Marketocracy Inc. In Ken's final year as CEO at Firsthand, assets rose from $1 billion to $8 billion – but Ken recognized that tech stocks simply could not run 56% a year for another five years, so he expanded Firsthand's research capability to prepare for a potential future transition out of tech stocks. He went on to create a database of individual analyst track records that would be key for recruiting the best investment team in the industry. Founded in 2000, Marketocracy has set the stage for the next era of investment strategy and research. With te
