Featured Guest

Hazel Courteney

Hazel Courteney became the first UK's agony aunt with her column "What's the Alternative?" in the Daily Mail. In 1997, she joined The Sunday Times and within six months was voted Health Journalist of the Year. In 1998, she had a near death experience which she explained in her first book, "Divine Intervention" followed by the sequel, "The Evidence for the Sixth Sense". Her latest book, "Countdown to Coherence" chronicles her findings from some of the leading experts in science and spirituality doing research today.
