July 12th 2011: A young man's journey from adolescence to adulthood via quadriplegia

In, 'Now What?', SokheChapke Publishing, Dr. JR Harding and his wife and co-author, Erika Richards-Harding describe JR's journey from adolescence to adulthood via quadriplegia. Living with a significant disability, they say, citing the Americans with Disabilities Act, "is natural" because of who Americans are and because each one understands intuitively the right and responsibility to pursue "life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness." So there exists no barrier which cannot be overcome. JR tells us how his barrier-bursting journey took him from trauma to triumph. How he was sustained by the
