September 30th 2011: The mourning after: An hour of AMC fan memories

All My Children fans are still coming to terms with not being able to visit their friends in Pine Valley, Soap Central Live is giving fans the chance to share their favorite moments and keep AMC alive until it makes its debut on the Internet. In this special hour, fans are invited to call in and share their favorite storylines, the most memorable moments, and what they're doing to get by until All My Children returns under Prospect Park's production banner.
