October 18th 2011: Egonomics

Montreal and New York City, October 18, 2011 – How much does an out of control ego cost an organization? On the next episode of Real Recognition Radio, Roy Saunderson and S. Max Brown speak with Steven Smith the author of Egonomics and BusinessThink. Voted as one of the top 100 business thought-leaders in the country, Steven's work has been adopted by several universities across the country as an example of what the real business world is about. He teaches 3 unique sessions for G5 Leadership which is offering Real Recognition Radio listeners a complimentary one- year G5 membership: go to

Steven Smith

Steven Smith has written two books on communication and leadership and is working on a third. He is also a co-founder of G5 Leadership- an online training company changing the way people learn about leadership. Smith's writing, speaking and business ideas have received acclaim from Tom Peters, Ram Charan, Marshall Goldsmith, Harvard Business School, Thunderbird, and embraced by such client organizations as Hilton, Disney, Baptist Health Care, Microsoft, Cox Communications, American Express, and State Farm. With degrees in management, psychology and expertise in team collaboration and leadership, Microsoft Live Meeting featured Smith for two years as top leadership faculty. His work has been f
