October 19th 2011: Roadmap to Secure HealthCare Delivery

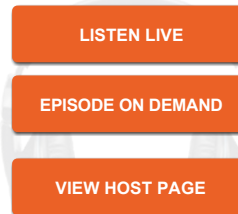

Healthcare organizations of all types, pharmacies, healthcare vendors, healthcare providers, and health insurance companies are all under pressure to go digital sooner rather than later. At each organization, the IT leader will have to assess the pros and cons of various services and cloud options, each of which comes with its own security concerns. Additionally, these IT leaders will have to implement compliant data security governance. Additionally IT will have to implement security on various mobile devices in various settings (for example, what about a tablet/pad with instructions from a d
