November 16th 2011: A Man's Work is Never Done with Jim Cloughley

If you spend any time thinking about the following questions you are not alone: Do you ever feel confused, even overwhelmed, by your role as the bread winner, provider, protector, competitor or warrior? Where do you fit in as a man in the world now? Do you feel angry, resentful and frustrated much of the time? What is expected of you when you think about your home life, your work life and your family life? Jim will discuss his novel, based upon real situations, which follows the story of a disillusioned young man who did not receive the benefit of having a father guide and all the trials tha
