July 07th 2011: Murder and Suicide

Tawna Righter realized after suffering two profound tragedies, that there were men, women, and children who had suffered this same heartbreak—that of a murder-suicide of friends, loved ones. As a result of her son killing his girlfriend and then himself and struggling with profound grief, Righter has followed a path toward recovery. She is the author of Living With the Unimaginable Life in the Aftermath of Murder
