March 05th 2012: Separating the Hype From the Reality in Investment Newsletter Recommendations

Many people subscribe to investment newsletters because they are captivated by the enticing returns promised by the newsletter promoter. Travis Johnson, editor and founder of the Stock Gumshoe newsletter review website, has taken it upon himself to dissect what is real and what is purely hype about these claims. In this interview, he will reveal how to tell a legitimate investment idea from a bogus one, and tell many stories of hyped investment fads that were duds. You will save yourself a lot of money and grief by listening to what Travis Johnson has to say about analyzing investment promises
