There's always something going on in the world of daytime drama – and what a difference a year can make. On a special “then and now” edition of Soap Central Live, host Dan J Kroll discusses the latest soap news and looks at how those stories have changed over the past 12 months. General Hospital has quietly been renewed by ABC, but just a year ago, soap fans were still shell-shocked over the news that ABC had decided to cancel both All My Children and One Life to Live. Days of our Lives has announced that it has cut several cast members and dismissed its head writing team, but in 2011 the sho
