April 24th 2012: Seniors in need, caregivers in distress

John G. Abbott is the Health Council of Canada's Chief Executive Officer. He describes the Council's work. He highlights the Council's report, 'Seniors in need, caregivers in distress'. He discusses the roles of caregivers, family caregivers, informal caregivers, and personal service workers. He compares the current state of family caregiving in Canada with that elsewhere. He instances the benefits that family caregivers bring to seniors and to the healthcare system faced with an aging population. He analyzes the challenges that family caregivers face in caring for their aging family members,
