April 26th 2012: Reborn as a Healer after Near Death

Our guest this week reminds me of Ellen Burstyn in the movie "Resurrection," when her car plummets off a bridge and she survives, to become a psychic healer. Mas Sajady, is a gifted healer, creating miracles every day. From childhood, Mas was intuitive, but tried to hide it until he nearly died in his twenties. After this accident, he could sense the future and issues of others. As he became focused on his business and family, he again pushed away his psychic ability, until another near death experience occurred. After nearly dying a second time, Mas opened himself to his gifts and became a he

Mas Sajady

After his second near death experience, Mas Sajady was gifted with intuitive and healing abilities so remarkably potent that he was soon likened to some of the most significant healers in history. Within a year of starting Transparent Self Image in November of 2009, Mas had worked on over a thousand individuals just through referrals. He does not have the power to heal; rather, he acts as the "conduit" for pure energy to manifest healing from a higher energy field. These fundamental shifts can impact physical and emotional health, financial, spiritual and any areas of one's relationships. Through his daily mediation sessions and frequent speaking engagements worldwide, Mas has helped thousa
