April 19th 2012: Special Encore Presentation: What Happened To The Most Hated Woman In America

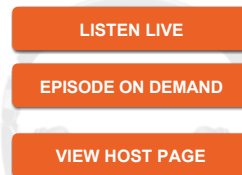

Madalyn Murray O'Hair offended millions when she advocated keeping religion out of the schools in the 60's. Founder of the American Atheists Association and President from 1963-1986, her law suit, Murray v. Curlett lawsuit led to a landmark Supreme Court ruling ending government sponsored prayer in American public schools. But what happened to her? She vanished in 1995. Private Investigator Tim Young played an integral part in uncovering the facts surrounding O'Hair's disappearance. Tune in to hear the road Tim traveled to find the truth about what happened to the "most hated woman in America"
