May 08th 2012: Wealth Issues in the News

The current political and tax situation is volatile. Politicians have little restraint and less accountability for their spending. It is hard to predict what the taxing authorities are going to do. Both federal and state governments are experiencing record revenue shortfalls. The probability of tax increases is high. How do we use these key indicators to map a strategy for our wealth creation and preservation? Also, we have discussed several times on this show that a move to a fixed or indexed retirement product would make sense. Later in the show we will tell you why moving out of the stock
