Leading Conversations Friday at 10 AM Pacific

May 18th 2012: Special Encore Presentation: Leadership Relevant for Our Times

Cheryl Esposito welcomes Nina Simons, a social entrepreneur, and co-founder of Bioneers, writer and thought leader in women's leadership. Her previous roles include President of Seeds of Change and Director of Strategic Marketing for Odwalla. Nina says that we are operating with an inherited definition of leadership that does not serve us in the 21st century. It carries with it assumptions that play out in actions, structures of organizations, implicit as well as explicit agreements of societal norms. Nina implores us to develop a new practice of leadership: "It is the correlations betw

Nina Simons

Kenny Ausubel and Nina Simons are the Founders and CEOs of Bioneers. Founded in 1990, Bioneers is a fertile hub of scientific and social innovators with practical and visionary solutions for the world's most pressing environmental and social challenges. Nina is a social entrepreneur who translates her life experience into tools for serving the emerging leadership of others. Nina also writes and teaches about women's leadership and restoring the 'feminine' in us all. In 2002, a retreat Nina produced called UnReasonable Women for the Earth, resulted in the formation of CODEPINK: Women for Peace. Nina was previously president of Seeds of Change and a marketing executive with the fresh juice c
